Local TV Snapshot: April 17-23, 2023

Market: Houston, TX

Hours of TV Viewed: 38.2 Million

TV Households: 1,947,406

National Rank: #10

Overview:

Basketball and local news took over televisions in the Houston market during the week of April 17-23, 2023. The Rockets' season came to an unfortunate close, ending the league's longest running playoff streak with not missing the NBA playoffs since the 2011-12 season.

However, this didn't stop fans from tuning into their TVs. On broadcast networks, Sunday evening news on KTRK (ABC) earned a live HH rating of 9.5, making the series this week's number one spot on the broadcast series ranking. On cable networks, the 2023 NBA playoffs on TNT earned the number one spot, with a live HH rating of 1.9.

For our network rankings, KTRK (ABC) earned the number one position with a weekly average live household rating of 3.3. Amongst cable networks, it was FOX News Channel that earned Comscore's number one position with a weekly average live HH rating of 0.9.

Check out these insights and our local network viewer persona below,, and stay tuned to see which market we spotlight next week!
